ANDERSON COLLEGE
Anderson, South Carolina

Fifty Years of Learning

Dedication

We dedicate this Golden Anniversary Annual to Reverend Lawrence B. Lutz, Dean Lutz is the man behind the scene, the person to whom people go when they desire information or assistance. He always presents a friendly and understanding attitude to both faculty and students.

It is in appreciation for his continued service and devotion to Anderson College that we wish to make this dedication.

Foreword

During the past fifty years Anderson College has undergone many changes. Many faces have appeared and disappeared among the faculty. Numerous students have carried away a part of the college in their hearts; and yet, the college has continued to grow nourished by their undying affection.

Though the years pass and we grow older, the friendships we make during our college days will remain indelible in our mind for instant recall. That will be the true and pleasant value of our college friends. We will not be able to remember some names or some faces, but with a little reminder the old companions will be our adjectives of good times.

Memories will continue as season follows season. It is with this spirit we present to you the Golden Anniversary edition of the COLUMNS.

50 years at ANDERSON

In the spring of 1910, three Anderson men gathered in the office of General M. L. Bouham for a meeting which was to have far-reaching results. For this group, appointed by the Anderson Chamber of Commerce, took the first steps toward organization of a college for the community, which became the Anderson College of today.

EAST DOMITORY

Members of this first committee were J. L. Sherard, W. R. Osborne, and Leon L. Rice. These men wrote leaders in the city and county and called for a meeting at the courthouse April 21, 1910. At this time, it was decided to canvass for subscriptions and hold a report meeting November 23, 1910. A 40-member committee, Mr. Leon Rice says, went out "into the highways and byways and successfully raised $92,350, and a site of thirty-two acres of land. At the report meeting, A. M. Carpenter, Chamber of Commerce secretary, announced that he was authorized by persons not present to announce that the goal of $100,000 has been reached. This met with loud cheers from the assembled group.

From the beginning, the only stipulation made by the contributors, and the only underlying principle of the school as it was first planned, was that it be a Christian institution and that it be placed under the support and control of some church.

A committee prepared a memorial offering the $100,000 and the land to the South Carolina Baptist Convention, meeting in Laurens in November, 1910. The Convention accepted the offer and named 15 trustees to the first board for the college. These were L. J. Bristow of Abbeville; C. C. Brown, Sumter; J. N. Brown, J. J. Fretwell, R. S. Ligon, M. M. Mattison, C. S. Sullivan, H. H. Watkins, W. A. Watson, all of Anderson; L. M. Roper, W. E. Thayer, J. K. Durst, Greenwood; W. H. Hunt, Newberry; S. C. Mitchell, Columbia; and W. B. Wilbur, Charleston.

An executive committee, charged with active conduct of affairs, included Judge H. H. Watkins, Rev. L. J. Bristow, R. S. Ligon, M. M. Mattison, and C. S. Sullivan.

A charter for a four-year college for women, known as Anderson College, was issued by the General Assembly of South Carolina meeting on Valentine's Day, February 14, 1911. It is from this time that the college is dated, and February 14 is observed each year as Founders' Day.

During the summer of 1911, buildings were constructed on the 32-acre site, and in September, 1912, the college opened its doors to its first group of young ladies. Anna Tribble Pearce (Mrs. Thomas Pearce) was the first student to apply to the new college for admission. First president was Dr. J. A. Chambliss, and the first dean was J. K. Breeding.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

COLLEGE

The college continued as a four year school until 1930, at which time it opened as the first junior college in the state. Reorganization was made to a two-year school at the suggestion and under the guidance of Dr. Annie D. Denmark, fifth president for Anderson College, and its only woman president.

WEST DORMITORY

No complete history of the college can be given in this limited space, but some of the significant dates for the school can be recorded.

Historical highlights for Anderson College begin with signing of its charter in 1911. In 1916, Dr. John E. White became president and, in that year, he re-financed the college, and had $61,000 pledged by local citizens for expansion. A new dorm, Whyte Building, opened in 1921. In 1930, when the school became a junior college, young men were also admitted for the first time as day students.

PRESIDENT'S HOME

In 1938, during Dr. Denmark's administration, Andersonians joined with the State Baptist Convention to pay off the bonded indebtedness for the college.

In 1956 the first new building for many years appeared, as a new library was constructed during Dr. Elmer F. Haight's administration.

A $200,000 expansion campaign followed in 1958, near the start of Dr. John E. Rouse's administration, with local citizens and industry coming to the support of Anderson College.

In 1960 the student center-gymnasium was authorized by the State convention, using both expansion funds and capital needs of the funds contributed by South Carolina Baptists.

Accreditation by the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges followed on December 3, 1960, after intensive work toward this by President Rouse and officers of the administration and faculty. Six days later, the gift of a new infirmary to the college by Mr. and Mrs. Max Rice was announced.

A $100,000 bequest in the will of Mrs. H. H. Watkins was announced on December 24, 1960, to close out an eventful year for Anderson College. Mrs. Watkins said the gift was made in honor of her husband, the late Judge H. H. Watkins.

Construction of a dormitory for boys was authorized at the 1960 Baptist Convention and plans for its construction are in progress at this time.

In January, 1961, a Living Endowment program for the college was inaugurated, at suggestions made by Dr. J. R. Young of Anderson in February, 1960. This program will have much to do with the success and progress of Anderson College, as the Baptist school enters the second-half century of its existence.

Alma Mater

*Dear to our hearts is our Alma Mater
Loyal and true are we;
Truest devotion till life is ended,
Wholly we pledge to thee.*

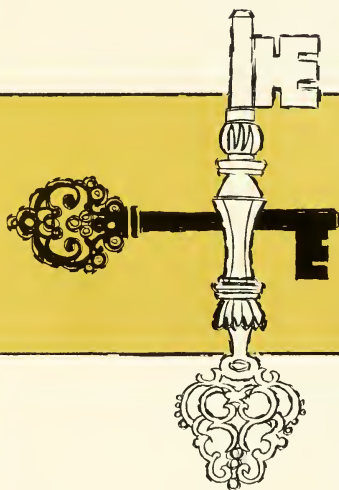

*Tho' from thy halls far away we wander,
Thoughts back to thee will fly,
And tender mem'ries time cannot sever,
Love that will never die.*

*Heaven's choicest blessings ever attend thee,
Dear Alma Mater mine—
No shadows harm thee, no fears alarm thee,
Always the sunshine thine.*

*And tho' we leave thee, we'll never grieve thee,
True to our trust we'll be;
Our best endeavor, now and forever,
Always to honor thee.*

ORGANIZATIONS

The Columns Staff

The COLUMNS Staff is proud to present to the students of Anderson College the 1960-61 edition of the yearbook. The staff feels that this annual is special because of the Golden Anniversary of the school.

ADVISOR

Dodie King, Carolyn Zupp, Lanie Dunlevy, editor, Johnnie Marie Reed, Patsy Brazell. Not Shown: Louanne Bettis, Gary Sue Jones.

Home Economics Club

The Doddridge Home Economics Club aids in the development of initiative, leadership, and professional pride for students interested in this field. Each girl who is taking Home Economics is eligible to join the club.

This organization, named for the first home economics teacher at Anderson College, is affiliated with the American Home Economics Association, the South Carolina Home Economics Association, and a member of the Omicron Iota Kappa.

The three main projects during this school term is sponsoring a Christmas tea for high school students in the eight surrounding counties; attending the State Convention in Clemson, South Carolina, presenting a spring fashion show of the clothes each girl has made — a beginner's garment, tailored garment, or an original design.

Student Government Association

The object of the Student Government Association of Anderson College is to foster student interests and activities, to maintain high standards of scholarship and honor among students, to aid in administering regulations, and to transact business pertaining to the student body. Every student enrolled in Anderson College automatically becomes a member of the Association.

The executive power of the Association is vested in the Council, which is composed of the regular officers and representatives of various campus groups. The Council meets once each week, dealing with problems of discipline, as well as any considerations concerning the welfare of the students. The Dean of Women and the Dean of Men serve in an advisory capacity with this group.

Chapel programs are conducted regularly by the Student Council. The President of the Council presides, the Council members wear caps and gowns, and the Alma Mater is sung. Various programs of interest to the student body are presented.

The Student Faculty Committee, composed of representatives from the Student Council, and representatives from the Faculty, considers problems and policies of the college, and deals with the more serious disciplinary problems. This Committee represents the cooperative effort of both students and Faculty to make Anderson College a finer school.

Men's Student Government

The Men's Student Council is a link between the Student Government Association and the men students. This is a new organization on our campus since more men are members of our student body. The men's council members can more easily understand and deal with the problems of the other men.

DIRECTOR
Mrs Pauline Poplin

Anderson College Choir

The Anderson College Choir is unique in its setup in that it is both a class, carrying credit hours and a student organization. Made up this year of 40 singers selected early in September by audition, the Choir receives intensive vocal training from the head of the voice department. During the year approximately 55 worthy choral selections are learned and performed.

The Anderson College Choir as its name implies, emphasizes the best in sacred choral literature but performs also secular and folk selections as appropriate.

Serving as president this year is Frances Hiers, as vice president, Sue Payne; as Secretary - Treasurer; Elaine Blitch; serving as the robe committee are Jan

Biggers, Carroll Shands, Frances Rivers, and Barbara Dempsey; serving as Librarians are Martha Louise Allison, Lynda Richbourg, Mimi Livingstone, and Mary Kirby.

From the Choir a Sextette is selected each year. This year the Sextette is composed of Beverly King, Sue Payne, Joyce Walters, Jo Shirley, Elaine Blitch, and Reba Hutto, and Martha Louise Allison as accompanist.

They sang for Rod Heller Day in Seneca, college chapel at Christmas time, and sang and produced Bastien by Mozart.

Anderson College Players

The fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Anderson College witnessed new heights in accomplishments for the Anderson College Players, under the direction of Professor Everett H. Vivian, chairman of the Department of Speech and Drama, and the audiences for the various productions have been impressed by the unusual talent and teamwork displayed by the members of the cast and the director.

As part of its golden anniversary celebration Anderson College presented the Players in "The Diary of Anne Frank," a play in two acts by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett based upon the actual diary kept by a thirteen-year-old girl who, with her parents and other Dutch Jews, hid from the Nazis in an overcrowded garret in Amsterdam, Holland, during the Second World War. This major production was given on October 20, 21, and 22, and the players performed with a German accent.

Another outstanding presentation was a drama of the War Between the States, "The Breaking of Bread," which was staged at the college during the chapel hour on December 13 and again in the evening for the public. Dickson appeared as the Rebel and Brown as the Yankee in the play that brought out the human side of the soldier of the 1860's when Southerner met Yankee in a forest.

At the convention of the South Carolina Speech Association, which was held at Columbia College in the city of Columbia on February 24 and 25, 1961, Dickson took a prominent part on the program with portrayals of both Otto Frank and Mr. Van Daan, and he also performed in several scenes from "The Breaking of Bread." Nalley and Misses Eathel Bowie and Gayle Anderson were other students attending the convention, and Professor Vivian discussed the problems and technicalities of producing plays.

Miss Kirby serves as president of the Anderson College Players, while other officers are Miss Livingstone as treasurer and Sydney Vivian as secretary.

"What's new" is more than an idle question with members of The Yodler staff, who search for scoops and for the news behind the news, and who struggle with layouts and heads and stories in a race against the ever-nearing deadline.

The Yodler not only reported, but made news this year, as Editor JoAnn Coker moved the campus student newspaper from a monthly to a twice-a-month publication, changed its appearance with a re-styled nameplate for page one, and introduced new features.

Chief assistants were Kathy Fetscher, Associate Editor, and Trudy Fowler, keeping The Yodler out of the

Delta Psi Omega

As a result of Professor Vivian's leadership, Delta Psi Omega, the national honorary dramatic fraternity, has joined the South Carolina Speech Association, and on May 11, 1960, there was held a public initiation service for seven candidates for membership. They were Dickson, Timms, and Misses Livingstone, Harden, Crick, Miles, and Sammons, and they received membership in the dramatic fraternity on the basis of their performances in a major production and on their knowledge of the meaning and symbols of Delta Psi Omega.

This fraternity was organized on March 20, 1929, for the purpose of providing an honor society for persons attaining a high standard of work in dramatics and, incidentally, through the expansion of Delta Psi Omega among the colleges of the United States and Canada, to provide a wider fellowship for those interested in the college theater. The fraternity is not intended to take the place of the regular dramatic club or other producing groups, but as students qualify they are rewarded by election to membership in this society.

Yodler Staff

red as Business Manager. Working with the "big three" was a staff of reporters and advertising solicitors, operating second semester from new quarters in The Penthouse, third floor of the new student center.

In March, JoAnn, Kathy, and Trudy, with new staff members Mackey Davis and Bill Richie, went to the S. C. Collegiate Press Association Convention in Columbia. Their suitcases were a little heavier on the return trip, for they brought back the cup for the best college paper in the state from a campus of 750 enrollment or under; a certificate for the best page-one layout (done by Jo Ann); a certificate for the best sports story (written by Bill Moore); and for the best feature story (written by Barbara Gibson).

Phi Theta Kappa

In 1932 the Anderson College chapter, Beta Pi, was granted a national charter by the Grand Council of the Phi Theta Kappa.

This junior college scholarship society, corresponding Phi Beta Kappa for four year colleges throughout the United States.

A student to be eligible must rank in the scholastic upper ten per cent of the students enrolled in Arts and Science courses. Professor Henry Von Hasseln holds an honorary membership in the Beta Pi chapter and is faculty sponsor of this chapter.

The Nothings

This eight piece ensemble is a loosely connected group that plays for various occasions around the campus. Groups off campus invite them to play, also.

This group is newly organized this year and is very popular. Although there is no brass section except for one trombone, the type music that is played doesn't require a strong brass section. The bongo drums play a big part in this outfit and are very well liked by the students. The electric guitars are also outstanding in this outfit.

Some of the members also sing for the group. This group is unique because it only has one girl. Nevertheless she is very competent as she has written a song, but she has not had it published.

Circle "K" Club

Soon after the beginning of first semester the Kiwanis Club of Anderson became interested in organizing an active Circle K. Club at Anderson College. Mr. Parker, who is professor of mathematics, was asked to be the sponsor for this new organization. Fifteen boys were carefully selected from the Sophomore and Freshman classes. The organization is a service group intended to be of service on the College Campus as well as in other ways in different sections. Some of the services performed are those of promoting safety on the campus, to aid in various programs sponsored by the college, and assist during registration. The motto of Circle K. is "We Build". Circle K. builds character, and a desire to get ahead in the mind of the members. Circle K. is an international organization and each club is sponsored by an individual Kiwanis Club. The beginning of Circle K. was the effort put forth by businessmen to assist and guide the leaders of tomorrow. Circle K. Clubs are chartered by Circle K. International and are assisted by the literature provided in planning their projects.

The foremost aim of the Anderson College Sketch Club is to give the Art student a chance to relax and sketch nature in a friendly surrounding.

Since the club's only requirement is talent, its members consist of not only college students but persons from the City of Anderson and the surrounding area.

Mrs. Cressie Holcombe selects the club members in the fall. Under her capable leadership, each individual member is allowed to develop his or her own special talent by painting all the different aspects of nature from winter to summer.

The event most eagerly anticipated is the monthly field trip. The members go to Mrs. Holcombe's country hide-away, where they are allowed to sketch whatever they wish.

The Sketch Club has proven to be a helpful method of encouraging budding young artists and improving their skill and originality.

The Canterbury Association is a voluntary association of Episcopal students which has for its purpose the deepening of their faith in and their loyalty to our Lord Jesus Christ through study, discussion, and fellowship.

The Canterbury Association prayer is: "Almighty God, We beseech Thee, with thy gracious favour to behold Anderson College, that knowledge may be increased among us, and all good learning flourish and abound. Bless all who teach and all who learn; and grant that in humility of heart all may ever look unto Thee who art the fountain of all wisdom; through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen."

Twice a month, Methodist students at Anderson College gather in the day student lounge in the new student center for their Wesley Fellowship meetings and programs.

For many years such a group was discussed, and several attempts were made to form a campus organization of Methodists, both day and resident students. This 1961 group, however, is the first to complete an organization, and to hold regular meetings and social events.

Two local Methodist Churches, St. John's and Trinity, are co-sponsors for the Wesley Fellowship. Working with the group are Mrs. Rob King and Mrs. James Phillips from St. John's, and Mrs. Ned Camp from Trinity, as advisors, with Miss Antoinette Jones as campus contact for the group.

The brand-new Fellowship has sent representatives to the state fall Methodist retreat, to the spring state council planning session, and to the state spring retreat.

Programs have included a series on The Christian Marriage and on The Beliefs of a Methodist, with speakers including local Methodist ministers and laymen.

The Wesley Fellowship has presented a program at a Clemson College Wesleyan Foundation meeting, and the group has been entertained by both churches. Christmas caroling at the homes of shut-ins was sponsored in December.

First student council for the Methodists includes Lanie Dunlevy, president; Joyce Glenn, vice-president; Trudy Fowler, secretary-treasurer; and Barbara Davis, World Christian Community Chairman.

Baptist Student Union

The BSU is a distinctive student program promoted by the Southern Baptist Convention for Baptist students. Even though primarily for Baptists, all students are eligible to belong to this specific group by joining one of its campus organizations.

Through the BSU each individual is encouraged to participate in the religious activities of the campus and his or her church. Its functions and objectives are to relate the student properly to his church and denomination during college days; to promote the church ministry; to present a positive Christian witness to the campus and community; and, to develop balanced Christian personalities.

It also provides Christian fellowship which stimulates enduring friendships; it enables the student to meet the challenge of materialistic skepticism and strengthens his faith in the face of intellectual problems; it encourages scholarship as a part of effective Christian witnessing; it develops Christian leadership through a well-organized campus program; it magnifies Christian citizenship and world responsibilities.

All campus organizations of the Baptist work come under the name of BSU. The executive council leads out in all phases of each organization. Those functioning on a campus are as follows: YWA, Ministerial Band, Missions Band, and the church-related band.

The BSU sponsors various activities during the school year, such as, vesper and chapel services; mission studies, and deputation teams to other campuses and churches; Religious Emphasis Week, Dedicated Vocations Week, Christian Home Week, Summer Missions Program; conventions and retreats; Ridgecrest assembly; socials and banquet; and, a sustained evangelistic program throughout the year.

Ministerial Association

Members of this association are men who feel that they are definitely called to be ministers or Christian workers.

The organization is for the purposes of fellowship, inspiration, and service.

Twice a month the association is in charge of services at the Haven of Rest Rescue Mission. They have held two youth revivals and several programs in chapel. Also the group has morning devotion on WAIM Radio several weeks out of the year.

Many times the students are asked to substitute at local churches for pastors who are out of town.

Young Women's Auxiliary

The Ann Hasseltine YWA is represented on the Baptist Student Union council by the YWA president. She informs the BSU of plans and activities of Young Woman's Auxiliary and secures cooperation and participation of the BSU in missionary activity.

The circle plan of organization is an effective way to enlist members and to assure their participation.

Circle membership is formed by dormitories, floors, or halls, each circle has its officers, chairmen and committees who are responsible for programs and regular missionary activities in their units. The circles meet separately once a month and all circles come together for a general meeting. The general officers of the YWA are responsible for planning the general meetings, promotion of all YWA activities, and working with the officer or chairman in the circles whose duties correspond with hers.

The magazine used by YWA is The Window. Each YWA member is urged to subscribe to this magazine.

Mission studies of both home and foreign places are promoted each year. Also week of prayer for each of these. YWA members go to other churches and teach mission studies as well as assist on campus ones.

During college days it is important that spiritual growth keep pace with intellectual growth. This can be true only if the young woman is an effective Christian witness among fellow students, faculty, staff, and community residents.

The Ann Hasseltine Young Woman's Auxiliary is named for the first American woman foreign missionary, Ann Hasseltine Judson. Her life was an actual fulfillment of the missionary spirit. She was faithful to her task — even to death.

The purpose of this organization is to unite Baptist young women in advancing missions by leading them to study about missions, to pray intelligently for missions, to give to missions, to serve diligently as witnesses to the power of missions among the spiritually and physically needy, and to live for Christ consistently and convincingly.

CLASSES

We, who entered AC in '59 as (timid?) freshmen, now emerge as plucky sophomores of this year, 1961. The memories we have accumulated in the past two years will remain with us forever. And what sophomore could forget the band at the "Crook" Banquet; snow and no classes; basketball games in the new gym, and West Dorm; residence life with its ups and downs and the many friends we have made. In two years we have grown to love and respect the members of the faculty who have meant much to us and to the freshmen class. Is it any wonder that as we join the rank and file of AC graduates that —

"Though from AC's halls far away we wander —

Thoughts back to her will fly."

Though the past haunts me as a spirit, I do not ask to forget.

Freshmen Class Officers

Here we go again—you know, it's sad about Freshmen, we had just become accustomed to being High School Seniors—and then we had to start all over again.

At first Anderson College was just a mass of buildings but now we have learned to love these lovely old buildings which will be our home for the next two years.

Now the faculty, upper-classmen, and freshmen are "one big happy family"—but most important of all—we're satisfied!

Somehow we'll survive throughout the year and the next year as Sophomores we'll be able to deal with the "greenhorns" as we were dealt with.
